Tau Beta Pi Awards $302,000 to 156 Scholars

The Fellowship Board of Tau Beta Pi, the engineering honor society, announces the selection of 156 Tau Beta Pi Scholars from 377 applicants for undergraduate study during the 2011-12 academic year. Most winners will receive a cash award of $2,000 for his or her senior year of engineering study, and a few will receive $1,000 for one semester. All Tau Beta Pi Scholarships are awarded on the competitive criteria of high scholarship, campus leadership and service, and promise of future contributions to the engineering profession. All scholars are members of Tau Beta Pi.

Of the winners, 31 are studying mechanical engineering, 25 chemical engineering, 20 civil engineering, 14 electrical engineering, 12 biomedical engineering, seven bioengineering, seven computer engineering, six aerospace engineering, five computer science, three electrical engineering & mechanical engineering, two each are studying engineering physics, geological engineering, industrial engineering & mechanical engineering, and industrial & systems engineering. The others are studying various areas of engineering and combinations of engineering science.

All of this year's scholarships are named for members or corporations. The Nagel Scholarships are given in honor of former Secretary-Treasurer Emeritus Robert H. Nagel, P.E., NY A '39. Named Editor of THE BENT in 1942, he became Secretary-Treasurer and Editor in 1947 and served until October 1982 when he was named Secretary-Treasurer Emeritus. Mr. Nagel died in 1997 at the age of 79.

The Record Scholarships, awarded for the first time in 2001, commemorate Leroy E. Record, KS A '29, whose generous bequest will provide earnings to support awards in perpetuity.

The Stabile Scholarships are named for Vincent A. Stabile, NY A '40, whose gifts to the Association, along with gifts from the Vincent A. Stabile Foundation, have permanently endowed scholarships.

The Dodson Scholarships are sponsored by Charles R. Dodson, MD B '30, who made a generous gift to the Association in 1998. Placed in the C.R. Dodson Scholarship/Fellowship Fund, its investment earnings will support the program in perpetuity. Mr. Dodson passed away in 2003 at the age of 96.
