The Elevator Big Issues Discussion—Scott M. Busch (CO B ’09), Colorado Beta Chapter Advisor
As Tau Bates, part of our mission is to give back to society, and having a technical background gives us a different perspective on various issues. Join other TBP members for an interactive discussion of some of the Big Issues facing our world today. Scott completed his bachelor’s & master’s degrees in computer science from the Univ. of Colorado Boulder. He works for Brocade Communications Systems as a senior embedded software developer, participates in the Front Range Alumni Chapter, and frequently attends the District 12 Conferences.

Building up Your Chapter Officers—George K. Miyata (WA D ’10), District 12 Director
Being an officer is difficult, but finding the next generation of officers that maintain positive chapter momentum is even harder. How do you identify good officer candidates and prepare them for the future? What is an effective mechanism for the transition of officers? Now that I am an officer, how can I effectively lead the chapter? George is a systems engineer at Northrop Grumman Corp. and 12-year TBP volunteer.

Chapter Fun for Any Budget—Ian J. Frank (NY P ’09), District 14 Director
Now that you are a chapter officer, do you find yourself wondering what to do next? You know there is more to Tau Beta Pi than initiations and membership, but are you having trouble making it happen? You don’t need a lot of funding to make a great chapter project or event. TBP should be lots of fun, no matter your budget! Ian is a mechanical systems engineer at 3D Systems Corp. and has served the Association for 5+ years.

Connecting Your Community—Tricia E. Gomulinski (SD A ’98), Dir. of Alumni Affairs
A shared purpose and the feeling of belonging contribute to the health and activity of a chapter. Discover ways to strengthen and grow your chapter through reaching out, communicating, and drawing others in. Tricia served as a District 12 Director for 12 years in CO and was appointed TBP Director of Alumni Affairs in 2013, where she supports & works with 41 active alumni chapters. She is a software engineer at Teledyne Brown Engineering.

God was an Engineer: A Talk on Engineering Ethics—Khabeer Salaam (DC A ’14)
Khabeer presents a ‘Pi Talk’ about the magnitude of the extra duty and moral responsibility of being an engineer; also entitled “God was an Engineer.” Salaam graduated with a degree in mechanical engineering from Howard University, where he served as TBP chapter president. He has founded two non-profits, is a serial entrepreneur, and worked for the Dept. of Defense.

Engineering a Career in Cybersecurity—Thomas Schaub (NY N ’93), District 8 Director
Tom earned an M.S. in engineering from MIT. He has spent the majority of his career working in cybersecurity, including roles as information security consultant, administrator, engineer, manager, director, and most recently – vice president, chief information security officer. Tom will draw upon his professional experience and insights and present cybersecurity as a viable field for engineering graduates considering non-traditional career pursuits.

Graduate Fellowships—Sally J. Steadman, Ph.D. (WY A ’69), Director of Fellowships
Sally is TBP Director of Fellowships and an adjunct professor at the University of South Alabama. Learn about graduate fellowships and how to get them. Learn tips on completing applications from Dr. Steadman who has experience reviewing applications for NSF, NDSEG, TBP, and more. Bring your questions!

How to Effectively Finance Grad School Education—Tiffany L. Porties, Univ. of Michigan
“How will I fund my graduate degree” is a common question and concern among prospective students. There are a variety of funding resources to consider such as fellowships, graduate assistantships, & more. We will discuss how to explore, identify, and take advantage of internal and external funding sources. Tiffany is the assistant director for the Michigan Engineering graduate programs office. She has worked at UM for 15 years, primarily in the area of student affairs.
Intro to Body Language—Jason A. Abellada (FL A ’04)
Engineers tend to focus more on verbal and written communications, yet approximately 60-80% of communication is nonverbal. We will cover the basics of body language and explain how to use this knowledge to develop your professional and personal communication skills. Jason has 10+ years of experience in water/wastewater control systems engineering and information technology. He is Tampa Bay Alumni Chapter president and holds a degree in computer engineering from the University of Florida.

Intro to Fusion 360: The Future of Making Things—Jeff Lee
Interested in learning about Autodesk’s newest cloud-based design platform? Stop by to hear about the Future of Making Things and participate in a hands-on workshop on how to model, sculpt, and render in Fusion 360. Jeff is an applications engineer at Autodesk with a bachelor’s degree in aerospace engineering (Georgia Tech) and a master’s degree in mechanical engineering (University of California, Berkeley).

Lead, Follow, or Get Out of the Way!—Russ Pierce (WA A ’70)
Are you a leader or a follower? To be an effective chapter officer and a successful engineer, you must be an effective leader. In this interactive session, we will explore what leadership is; whether leaders are born or made; the differences between leadership and management; and the three principal leadership styles. Russ owns a consulting business, is a chapter advisor, and served for 20+ years as an Engineering Futures Facilitator.

Managing Your Investments for Retirement—Harry W. Lange (MI Z ’75), TBP TAC
Retirement may be 40 or 50 years away, but investing as soon as you start your career is critical. Learn tips from Harry’s years of investing experience to help prepare yourself for a successful retirement as you move through the various stages of your career. Harry is a TBP Trust Advisory Committee member.

Move Up the Ladder—Christina M. Harrison (TN A ’93), District 11 Director
This session will help you understand what it takes to get promoted and generate ideas about how to manage your career. Skills to leverage your performance, image, and exposure to climb the corporate ladder. Christina works for Procter & Gamble in category management and is a former Engineering Futures Facilitator.

Networking Through Conversation—Jan A. Keiser, P.E. (AK A ’76), District 14 Director
Professional development depends on networking and building relationships that can be leveraged into future opportunities. There’s a skill to doing this authentically so the relationships are mutually beneficial. Savvy professionals engage people in simple conversations and effective follow-up. But, how do you turn the conversation into an opportunity? Jan is an experienced eng’g entrepreneur and will provide tips & techniques to starting conversations. She is a civil engineer & a construction attorney with 30+ years of experience with large projects.

The Nuclear Navy—Lt. Ben Mooney
See the latest in nuclear technology on the U.S. Navy submarine & carrier fleet. The most imposing vessels in America’s Navy rely on small-scale nuclear reactors to provide everything from basic propulsion to power generation. The safe operation of these nuclear plants depends upon an essential human element. Ben earned a mechanical engineering bachelor’s from the State Univ. of New York’s Maritime College. He completed the nuclear training pipeline in Charleston, SC, and has earned three Navy achievement medals.

Office Politics & Dealing with Headhunters—Robert L. Markley (OH D ’65)
Robert is a retired executive with international experience in managing companies. At his last job, he was an executive recruiter (headhunter) and learned the business from the inside. He will discuss the two types of headhunters and how to deal with each. He will also cover how office politics can accelerate or derail your career.
Robert’s Rules—Jason A. Abellada (FL A ’04)
Who the heck is Robert and what are his Rules all about? This session is for anyone who has never used or has little experience with Robert’s Rules of Order. If you want to learn more about how to effectively participate in the meetings of Convention, this is for you! Jason is Tampa Bay AC president and member of the National Association of Parliamentarians.

Should I Go to Graduate School?—Bruce Lindvall, Ph.D., Northwestern University
After taking the GRE, learn the best ways to get into your top graduate schools from Bruce Lindvall, assistant dean for graduate studies, McCormick School of Engineering and Applied Sciences at Northwestern.

What the Career Office Didn’t Tell You—Ed D’Avignon (NY B ’88), Director of Rituals
Ed will discuss what he looks for when screening resumes and interviewing candidates as a team leader and principal engineer with Broadcom Limited. He will give tips on how to avoid your resume being quickly rejected and what he looks for in a resume; during both phone & in person interviews. Many of the highlighted areas are not typically discussed by university career offices. He served as TBP vice president (1998 -2002).

Why So Few Women in Engineering?—Debra A. Kimberling (AZ B ’81)
Have you ever wondered why there are so few women in engineering? Is there really a gender wage gap? Will today’s graduates be able to avoid the stereotypes to help build an equal engineering workplace? Debra will address the research, identify the invisible but very real hurdles women face in their careers, and present what you can do to support women in non-traditional fields. She has 30+ years of experience in industry, government, and academia and a master’s in aerospace engineering.

Uncommon Career Choices in Engineering—Wayne B. Paugh, Esq. (FL G ’93)
Wayne serves as special assistant U.S. attorney in the major crimes division of the U.S. Attorney’s Office for the District of Colorado in the Dept. of Justice. He works as a trial attorney on a wide range of issues, including customs law and intellectual property. Mr. Paugh earned his LL.M. in intellectual property law from the George Washington Univ. School of Law and his J.D. from the George Mason Univ. School of Law, with an IP emphasis.

Using ASEE Profiles to Apply for Graduate Admissions—Bruce Lindvall, Ph.D.
The American Society for Engineering Education (ASEE) offers profiles of the graduate student body at each accredited engineering school in the United States. Learn about the make-up of each graduate student body—gender, full-time and part-time, ethnicity, and total number of MS or PhD students by individual major.

1. Identification.
   a. The Credentials Committee shall issue identification badges and colored wristbands, which shall be worn for admission to Convention activities. Badges and wristbands may not be transferred without proper action by the Credentials Committee. Wristbands for voting delegates shall be yellow, and lost wristbands shall be immediately reported to the Credentials Committee.
   b. Voting delegates must check-in with a member of the Tellers Committee prior to entering the Business Meeting room. Voting delegates must check-out when leaving the room and check-in when returning to the room while the meeting is in session.

2. Voting.
   a. At their discretion, the presiding officer may request a “show of wristbands” in lieu of a rising vote.
   b. A counted vote shall be taken by a text voting procedure approved by the Tellers Committee.
   c. Text voting shall be open for 30 seconds for each question for which it is used.
   d. Voting delegates who do not have a cell phone or text capabilities will be issued paper ballots by the Tellers Committee to record their votes.
   e. A vote may be taken by roll-call only when three-fourths vote in favor of a roll-call vote.

3. Recognition.
   a. To request recognition, a delegate shall be at one of the microphones placed throughout the Convention hall.
   b. Upon recognition by the presiding officer, a delegate shall state their name and representing chapter.

4. Debate. For each debatable motion, a delegate shall be limited to one (1) speech of not more than five (5) minutes each unless the Convention orders otherwise.

5. Executive Council Elections.
   a. Nominations received prior to Convention and on the floor of Convention shall be accepted.
   b. Speeches of up to two (2) minutes by each candidate shall follow the closing of nominations.
   c. The method of voting shall be text voting as approved by the Tellers Committee.
   d. The election of Councillors shall occur by position. On the first ballot for each position, all unelected nominees shall be included on the ballot. Each position shall be filled by a majority vote. After each ballot, if no candidate receives a majority vote, the nominee receiving the least number of votes shall be dropped from subsequent ballots for that position. This procedure shall be repeated until all Councillors have been elected.
