- More information is available at www.tbp.org/fellowships.cfm.

Now in its 94th year, the Fellowship Program recognizes and supports outstanding members who plan to pursue graduate education that advances the engineering profession. Tau Beta Pi plans to award more than 25 fellowships this year. In 2022, 31 members received fellowships from 278 applicants.

Fellowships are awarded on the basis of scholarship, leadership and service, and the promise of substantial achievement. Applicants are asked to share their motivation and preparation for advanced study and how their career goals advance the interest of the engineering profession. Strong faculty recommendations are an integral component to the application.

Applications are welcome from members or candidates for membership who will be initiated by May 1 and will be enrolled full-time in a graduate program beginning Fall 2024. Applications are available at www.tbp.org/Applications

Fellowship winners will be announced May 1. Recipients will be awarded $10,000 in three installments beginning August 15, 2023, and are required to submit a report summarizing their work at the completion of the fellowship year.
