DESCRIPTION:

I. General Description: The Peoria Riverfront Museum hosts an "Engineering Day" event each year where families are able to spend the day learning about engineering fields through hands-on activities, exhibits, and demonstrations. We had two stations: a marshmallow catapult building station and an eddy current station. In the former, visitors were able to build a miniature catapult using an assortment of components with help from members of TBP. The latter was a demonstration of the difference of a magnet’s behavior when dropped through a copper tube and a plastic tube.

II. Purpose & Relationship to Objectives of TBP: Improve public image of Tau Beta Pi and IL-D, broaden IL-D's community service, and expose youth to the excitement of STEM fields through an interactive event.

III. Organization & Administration: (in conjunction with another group?) X Yes ___ No
The Engineering Events Chair worked closely with the administrator of the Engineering Day Event at the Peoria Riverfront Museum, Nick Rae.

IV. Cost & Personnel Requirements: $140.19.

V. Special Problems: Children were not as interested in the Eddy Current Station.

VI. Overall Evaluation/Results (Be Specific): The event went very well. Our area at the museum was constantly filled with visitors. Many children and parents stated that the marshmallow catapult station was their favorite activity of the day.

DESCRIPTION:

I. General Description: As one of the initiate events, members made cards for terminal patients at St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital. 90 cards were made in total using construction paper, markers, stickers, etc. Pizza was also provided.

II. Purpose & Relationship to Objectives of TBP: To create an event for eligible students where they can meet the officers and socialize with each other, all while helping the community.

III. Organization & Administration: (in conjunction with another group?) X Yes ___ No
We communicated with St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital in Peoria to organize the event and obtain a list of names of children to personally direct cards towards.

IV. Cost & Personnel Requirements: $9.74 for construction paper, markers, stickers. We used left over supplies from the previous card-making event. $22.05 spent on pizza. Total Cost was $31.79.

V. Special Problems: There were children’s names left over when the event ended, so the officers needed to create the remaining cards. I would suggest having the participants create cards faster or request not as many names next time.

VI. Overall Evaluation/Results (Be Specific): This was a great community service event that also encouraged initiates to socialize with each other and the officers.

DESCRIPTION:

I. General Description: Event was proposed by IEEE and the idea was to set up a bridge competition during LNBU to promote chapter image. It also allowed students of non-engineering disciplines to participate.

II. Purpose & Relationship to Objectives of TBP: To promote chapter image.

III. Organization & Administration: (in conjunction with another group?)  [X] Yes  [ ] No
The event was proposed and mostly organized by The Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE). Late Night Bradley University (LNBU) committee allowed us to have an activity during the event.

IV. Cost & Personnel Requirements: Other groups took care of finances.

V. Special Problems: The overall event organizer did not execute well, which caused the overall event to suffer due to lack of organization.

VI. Overall Evaluation/Results (Be Specific): The attendance was promising if pursued in the future. Roughly 20-30 people participated in making a bridge. The organization done by IEEE during the event was poor. Their president left a half an hour into event and did not leave anyone in charge.
